DON'T SPEND TIME TO READ THIS.

Unless you need Dry Goods, Groceries, Tin ware, Crockery, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps and a general line of merchandise, suited to the wants of the public, which we cordially invite you to inspect and compare prices before purchasing elsewhere. We are constantly receiving New Goods, which we buy with cash, and will not be undersold. We have adopted the one price system, and are receiving a liberal and increasing patronage because we sell good goods cheap and at the SAME PRICE to ALL, and give 16 oz. to the pound, 4 quarts to the gallon and 36 inches to the yard. Come and see us. We are always here to show goods and quote prices. We are thankful for past favors and trust by fair dealing to merit a continuance of the same.

Very Respectfully,

FINLAYSON & WARING.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Valley Centre Vapour

Autumn.
I. Herman was visiting in Saginaw this week.
Josh Caswell, formerly of this place, but for the past two years a resident of Evergreen, was on a visit among old neighbors the first of this week.
Quite a number of the boys are preparing to start for the pine woods.
Will our city "Boys" have enterprise enough about them to endeavor to induce the natives to build a sidewalk from Herman's store to the depot?
KIT KATSON.

Capac Opera.

Miss Susie Brown, of Sarnia, Ont., is visiting relatives in this vicinity.
Mrs. J. Robb, of Winona, Minn., visited at R. Shutt's a few days this week.
Gurley Lester bought the entire stock of goods from Kohu Bros. of this place. Mr. Kohu will return to his farm in Richmond, Macomb county.
Capac is booming nicely, a new harness shop and a tailor shop being opened in town during the past week.
Samuel F. Abrie sold two lots to Chas. Black, who will soon erect a fine dwelling house thereon.
A number of young folks enjoyed themselves at Martin Stoffers last Tuesday.
Mrs. H. Patterson visited her sister, Mrs. T. H. Parkinson of Brockway, last Sunday.
Several from Capac went to Port Huron last Monday.

Brown City Budget.

Mrs. G. H. Lowe, our enterprising milliner has received an immense stock of fall goods.
A number of apples from the orchard of R. G. Brown are on exhibition at Windsor Bros., some of which measure over a foot in circumference.
The Greenback meeting held over the billiard hall last Saturday evening was well attended.
Our genial grain buyer, W. McLeod, continues to pay the highest possible price for all kinds of grain and potatoes.
Messrs. Frank Snyder, T. Neely and Andrew Brown are enjoying a hunt in the north woods.
Our population is constantly on the increase. Two more families having moved into town the past week. Mr. Chas. Thomas has come to reside in town also Mr. Wm. McLeod of Melvin.
Two new buildings are in the course of erection on Main street. Mr. John Vanhest is building a new store on the corner of Main and Church streets. Mr. Dan Burke is building a dwelling on the north side of Main street near the grist mill.

Facts from Fargo.

Mr. Editor, please accept my congratulations. (Thanks.)
Miss Lena Kurtz, of Brockway Centre spent Sunday with Mrs. Lohr.
Andrew Kilgore has purchased a desirable lot in town and intends to build a dwelling soon.
Rev. Sam Bettis will have a debate at this place on prohibition with the Hon. Mr. Babcock of Lexington, on the evening of the 29th.
Yes, revenge is sweet indeed, but remorse is terrible to bear. thought two young ladies when they had spent a whole Sabbath evening trifling under delusions. They not only feel bad themselves but the public feels sorry for them. Truly wonders never cease.
Again our peaceful village was aroused from its slumbers by the cry of fire. This time the barns belonging to Walter Robinson were burned to the ground, containing grain raised from one hundred acres, together with farming implements. Walter Robinson is a brother of Geo. Robinson whose barns were burned on the 29th ult. Thomas Robinson also lost all his grain as it was stored in his brother's barns.
